About the Course

NCI's BA (Honours) in Early Childhood Education and Care provides a firm foundation in Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC) to practice in a range of early childhood settings. During the course you will cover a range of subjects to gain a deep understanding of the holistic learning and development of babies and children from birth to six years of age. A specialised Education Play Lab at NCI provides opportunities for 'hands on' student learning.

An essential and hugely beneficial key element of the programme is the strong emphasis placed on supervised professional practice placement in diverse Early Childhood settings. More than 1,000 hours are specially allocated to supervised placement-related activities. Among other skills, such as observations and ethical practice, application of strategies in learning environments, the placement includes planning and developing curriculum for young children. The final year provides an opportunity for students to combine their knowledge and skills in a practice-based capstone project.

Who is the course for?

This course is ideally suited to those who would like to work with or for babies, toddlers, young children and their families from birth to six in the ECEC sector. This course is also ideal for those interested in roles such as early childhood inspectors or mentors or curriculum trainers within the ECEC sector.

Career Prospects

Upon completion, you will have the skills to work directly with children as a graduate lead educator within early childhood settings. It also provides a pathway to leadership and specialist positions in areas such as setting-based management, mentoring and advisory roles within early intervention initiatives.

Government strategies have set out a vision for a graduate-led workforce in ECEC over the next decade. These strategies include the Core Funding scheme, which includes a graduate premium to be paid to services with graduate room leads for all ECEC age groups. These changes highlight the opportunities for graduates from this programme.

Course Structure and Award
