Student Survey 2020

National College of Ireland

Breakdown of Students who Responded to the Survey at NCI

1.

School of Business (49%)
School of Computing (47%)
Dept. of Learning and Teaching (4%)

First Year Undergraduate (30%)
Final Year Undergraduate (16%)
Postgraduate Taught (54%)

Full-time (71%)
Part-time (29%)

23 Years and Under (67%)
24 Years and Over (33%)
What NCI Students Said in the Survey

2. Learning Experience

65%	64%	62%
Applied facts, theories or methods to practical problems or new situations	Analysed an idea, experience or line of reasoning in depth by examining its parts	Combined ideas from different subjects as part of their studies

3. Personal Development
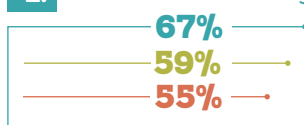

67%
60%
49%

Studies have contributed to them thinking more critically and analytically

Studies have contributed to them working more effectively with others

Studies have contributed to them solving complex real-world problems

4. Reflective Learning

67%
59%
55%

Connected ideas from their studies to their prior experience and knowledge

Tried to better understand someone else's views by imagining how an issue looks from their perspective

Examined the strengths and weaknesses of their own views on a topic or issue

5. Working with Other Students

76%
54%
50%

Rate their relationships with other students highly

Worked with other students on projects or assignments

Frequently explained course material to their classmates

6. People

63% Rate their interactions with support services highly 60% Rate their relationships with academic staff highly 60% Rate their interactions with administrative staff and offices highly

7. Careers

65% Improved knowledge and skills contributing to employability
49% Explored how to apply their learning in the workplace
42% Blended academic learning with workplace experience

8. Overall Satisfaction

76% Final Year Undergraduate students rate their overall educational experience as good or excellent

70% Students would choose NCI if they were to start their studies again